

thereafter, deliver to him [,] at the office of the board, or mail to him at an address designated by him, an absentee voter's ballot and an envelope therefor. [Postage] IF THE APPLICANT IS ONE WITH RESPECT TO WHOM FREE POSTAGE PRIVILEGES ARE PROVIDED FOR BY THE FEDERAL VOTING ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1955, OR ANY OTHER FEDERAL LAW, RULE, OR REGULATION, THE BOARD SHALL TAKE FULL ADVANTAGE OF THESE PRIVILEGES; IN ALL OTHER INSTANCES, POSTAGE for transmitting ballot material to [the voter] VOTERS shall be paid by the board, and postage for the return of ballots shall be paid by the voters. If the ballots are to be sent by mail, the determinations required in subsection (a) of this section shall be made in such time as will allow for the sending and return of the ballots by regular mail, or airmail, depending on the mailing address and including at least one secular day for marking the ballots and completing the affidavit. All [such] investigations shall be concluded and any determinations made as to all absentee ballot applications not later than five days before election day.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1974.

Approved April 30, 1974.
