

entertainment facilities and other facilities used by tourists and conventioners, provided that the Authority determines that the facilities will be used primarily by tourists or conventioners and further provided that the Authority determines that such facilities fill an established need in the overall development or expansion of a municipality's, county's, or region's tourist industry and/or convention business. However, "industrial project" shall not be deemed to include a mercantile or retail establishment nor does it include a service establishment unless the service establishment is directly related and necessary to tourist industry facilities as herein defined and is to be used primarily by tourists. This term shall also mean office buildings for use as corporate or company headquarters or regional offices providing the Authority deems the economic impact of the project to be substantial. The financing, construction, operation, and administration of an industrial project under this subtitle shall be subject to the provisions concerning discrimination and unlawful practices in Article 49B of this Code, title "Human Relations Commission."

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect [[July]] June 1, 1974.

Approved April 30, 1974.

CHAPTER 363

(Senate Bill 645)

AN ACT concerning

Aviation and Aeronautics

FOR the purpose of revising, restating, recodifying, and enacting certain new provisions in the aviation and aeronautics laws of this State, including laws pertaining to the organization, structure, operations, duties and authority of the State Aviation Administration of the Department of Transportation and its office, employees and units and pertaining to aeronautics in general; concerning the general powers of the Administration, registration and licensing powers of the Administration, public, municipal and state-owned airports and powers and duties related thereto and Baltimore-Washington International Airport; dealing