

perpetual care trust fund a minimum of fifteen per centum (15%) of the selling price of each crypt, niche, lot or interment right sold, and provided further that if ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) is not thereby completed by the end of the seventy-two (72) month period, it shall be obligatory upon the cemetery to complete it at this date. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, as to any cemetery the developed land area of which, as of January 1, 1969, was greater than ten acres, the $25,000 deposit required by subsection (b) may be deferred for a period not longer than 72 months from the EFFECTIVE date of this section. Until the $25,000 deposit is completed, such a cemetery shall deposit into the perpetual care trust fund a minimum of 15% of the selling price of each crypt, niche, lot, or interment right sold. However, if the $25,000 deposit is not thereby completed by the end of the 72-month period, it shall be obligatory upon the cemetery to complete it at this date.

(e) The terms of the trust to be established in connection with the administration of the perpetual care fund shall be designated by appropriate written agreement between the person owning, operating, and developing the cemetery and the trustee, and the terms of the trust instrument, including the provisions with respect to payment over of income and/or accumulation thereof, any other matters affecting income, including its reinvestment if desired, and any other terms relating to the administration of the trust, the powers of the trustee with respect to investments and similar matters shall be such as are satisfactory to the trustee and to said person so long as they conform with the provisions of this section. The trust agreement shall be irrevocable, except that the person entering into it shall be permitted, if he so desires, to retain the right to remove the trustee and appoint another trustee qualified under the provisions hereof so to serve; and the agreement may provide for the appointment of individuals and successor individuals to serve as cotrustees with a corporate trustee.
