

option of summoning grand jurors; and it shall be in the power of the court in its sound discretion not to summon any grand jurors if none are needed in the August term. The trial term of said court for the cases depending therein upon issues of facts, to be tried by a jury, shall be the term to which jurors shall be summoned next succeeding the terms to which original process may be returnable to the term next succeeding the date of the issue thereof, and the drawing of jurors for the jury terms aforesaid shall be in all respects as now prescribed by law, except that for the February term and August term aforesaid, and not less than fifteen days before the same, there shall be drawn from the names remaining in the box from which the jury for the preceding November term and for the preceding May term, respectively, is drawn twenty-five names, which shall constitute the petit jurors for said February term or August term, as the case may be, subject to the same provisions and regulations applicable to the correction and completion of the jurors drawn from other jury terms aforesaid.]

9.

[The judges of the Circuit Court may, in their discretion, appoint intermediate terms for the transaction of equity or other business, not requiring a jury, to which process may also be returnable.]

10.

[In addition to the first day of each term of the Circuit Court for said county the first Monday of January, April, July and October in each year shall be return days for the return of process in civil cases.]

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1974.

Approved April 30, 1974.

---

CHAPTER 538

(House Bill 1340)

AN ACT concerning

Funeral Directors and Embalmers

FOR the purpose of establishing certain requirements for an applicant of a funeral director and embalmer's