364C.

(a) The Corps may employ professional, technical, clerical, stenographic, and other personnel to carry out its duties and functions within the limits of budgetary appropriations. The employees of the Corps, except the Administrator, shall be subject to the provisions contained in Article 64A of the Code, title "Merit System." Prior to July 1, 1973 the number of corpsmen and corpswomen participating in the Corps shall not exceed the number required to produce the equivalent of 100 volunteer man years. Thereafter, the number of corpsmen and corpswomen participating in the Corps shall be determined by the needs of the community and by the limits of budgetary appropriations. The corpsmen and corpswomen participating in the program shall make a commitment of one year of service, and shall receive no salary, but they shall receive living allowances commensurate to their basic needs[; however, these allowances shall not exceed $100 per month].

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1974.

Approved April 30, 1974.
