

Article 66 1/2 - Vehicle Laws

6-102.4

(b) A Class B, D, or E license may be issued to a person who is at least 16 years old if the person has [passed] SATISFACTORILY COMPLETED a driver's education course approved [by the State Department of Education or the Department of Motor Vehicles, consisting of not less than 30 hours of classroom instruction and not less than 6 hours of behind-the-wheel driving.] IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF SECTIONS 6-701 THROUGH 6-706, INCLUSIVE, OF THIS ARTICLE. Any person who has been regularly licensed to drive in another state for six months or longer and who can establish to the satisfaction of a qualified driver training instructor that [their] HIS driving experience is sufficient to justify [their] HIS being exempt from further behind-the-wheel driver training shall be exempt from that part of the driver's education course requiring not less than six [(6)] hours of [behind-the-wheel driving] APPROVED LABORATORY INSTRUCTION; however, [they] HE shall be required to complete not less than thirty [(30)] hours of [driver training] THE REQUIRED classroom instruction GIVEN BY AN APPROVED SCHOOL. [Such a course may be given by a public school, a private school, or a licensed professional driver training school.]

6-105.

(b) An instruction and examination license shall entitle the person to whom it was issued to drive vehicles and combinations of vehicles of the class or classes specified herein, as described more particularly in § 6-102.2 with respect to drivers, but only while the holder of the instruction and examination license is accompanied by and under the immediate supervision of a person who:

1. Is licensed in Maryland or in another state to drive vehicles of the class then being driven by the holder of the instruction and examination license; PROVIDED THAT THE PERSON HAS HELD A LICENSE FOR AT LEAST 3 YEARS AND IS 21 YEARS OR OLDER;

2. Is actually occupying a seat beside the holder of the instruction and examination license, unless the vehicle is a motor-driven cycle. A motorcycle learner's permit shall entitle the holder thereof to operate a motorcycle on the highways, as a learner, while under the instruction and immediate supervision of a licensed motorcycle operator. Motorcycle learners shall carry only an instructor properly licensed to operate a motorcycle.
