

Notwithstanding any of the provisions of §§ 9 and 11 of this subtitle, any banking institution as determined by a resolution of its board of directors may elect to remain open for business on any day of the year except Sundays, New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday, Good Friday, [the last Monday in] THE 30TH DAY OF May, commonly called Memorial Day, the fourth day of July, Labor Day, the second Monday in October, known as Columbus Day, the [fourth Monday in October] 11TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, known as Veterans' Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas. Any day which but for the action of the board of directors of any bank would be a legal holiday shall not be a legal holiday for that banking institution. All laws concerning legal holidays shall apply or not apply to any banking institution acting under the provisions of this section according to the action of its board of directors in declaring such day to be or not to be a legal holiday.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 31, 1974.
