which a person has paid a tax bill which is erroneous by reason of any mere mathematical, mechanical or other clerical error by the taxing authority, OR THE TAXPAYER, exclusive of any error of valuation, in the computation, calculation or recordation of the assessment upon which said tax bill is based. Such claim for refund shall be in such form, verified in such manner, contain such information and be supported by such documents as may be prescribed by regulations of the county commissioners or ordinance of any municipality or ordinance of the mayor and city council of Baltimore and shall be filed within three years from the date of the payments of the ordinary taxes for which refund is requested.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect [[July]] June 1, 1974.

Approved May 31, 1974.

CHAPTER 659

(Senate Bill 860)

AN ACT concerning

City of Baltimore - General Powers

FOR the purpose of generally authorizing the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to establish a [[owner-occupation]] residential mortgage loan program for the public purpose of developing and perpetuating readily available sources of money at low and moderate cost for [[such]] residential mortgage loans within the City, to purchase or contract to purchase, pursuant to the residential mortgage loan program, mortgage loans and other securities under certain terms and conditions, and in connection therewith to issue certain revenue bonds, notes or other obligations pursuant to a certain Section of the Charter of Baltimore City which bonds, notes or other obligations may not constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional, charter or statutory provision or limitation and which may not constitute general obligations of the Mayor and City Council Baltimore, and making this an emergency measure.

BY adding to

Article II - General Powers