Article 76A - Public Information

3.

(e) Any person denied the right to inspect any record covered by this article may apply to the [district court] DISTRICT COURT of the district wherein the record is found for any order directing the custodian of such record to show cause why he should not permit the inspection of such record.

(f) If, in the opinion of the official custodian of any public record, disclosure of the contents of said record would do substantial injury to the public interest, notwithstanding the fact that said record might otherwise be available to public inspection, he may apply to the [district court] DISTRICT COURT of the district in which such record is located for an order permitting him to restrict such disclosure. After hearing, the court may issue such an order upon a finding that disclosure would cause substantial injury to the public interest. The person seeking permission to examine the record shall have notice of said hearing served upon him in the manner provided for service of process by the Rules of Procedure and shall have the right to appear and be heard.
