

3-811.

(a) Before a petition [against] CONCERNING a child is filed, the intake consultant or any other person authorized by the court may counsel and advise the parties and propose an informal adjustment if it appears:

(1) The case falls within the court's jurisdiction upon the facts admitted by the parties;

(2) Counsel and advice, without an adjudication, would be to the best interests of the public and child; and

(3) The parties consent in writing to the informal adjustment with knowledge that consent is not obligatory.

REVISOR'S NOTE: In §3-811(a) the word "against" is proposed for repeal and the word "concerning" is substituted on the recommendation of the Juvenile Services Administration to bring this language into conformity with the language in §3-810(a).

3-815.

(b) The court's jurisdiction is terminated if a [child] PERSON who has reached 18 years of age is convicted of a crime including the conviction of manslaughter by automobile, unauthorized use or occupancy of a motor vehicle, or operating a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors or drugs, unless:

(1) The conviction is for a violation of any other traffic law or ordinance or any provision of the State Boat Act, fish and wildlife laws of the state; or

(2) The court otherwise orders.

REVISOR'S NOTE: In § 3-815(a) the word "child" is proposed for repeal and the word "person" is substituted on the recommendation of the Juvenile Services Administration, given the definition of "child" in §3-801(e).

3-816.

(b) Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, jurisdiction may only be waived on:

(1) A child 14 years old or older; or

(2) A child who has not reached his 14th birthday, and who is charged with committing an act which, if
