[(a) Duties of clerks.

Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c), the clerks of the District Court shall:

(1) Collect costs, fines, forfeitures, or penalties imposed by the court; and

(2) Remit them to the State under a system agreed upon by the Chief Judge of the District Court and the Comptroller.

(b) Remittance to local government.

If a parking or impounding fine, penalty, or forfeiture is collected by the District Court pursuant to a local ordinance or regulation of a county or municipality, it shall be remitted to the respective local government.

(c) Payment of parking fine directly to a political subdivision or municipality.

If the law permits a political subdivision or municipality to collect and retain a parking fine, that fine shall be paid directly to the political subdivision or municipality and not through the District Court.]
