Preamble

WHEREAS, As an integral part of its responsibility, Governor Mandel in 1970 charged the Governor's Commission to Revise the Annotated Code to study and make recommendations concerning related problems in the public local laws which may be perceived during the course of Code Commission Activities. In conjunction with the in-depth research on the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article, related material in the public local laws of Worcester County was discovered which is in conflict with current provisions of the law and in adopted style.

Appropriate corrections have been made to bring these provisions into conformity with the Annotated Code of Maryland, Article 27 - Crimes and Punishments, Section 643.

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That Sections 11, 15B(f), 114, 117, 155, 156, 157, 332, 335 and 396 of the Public Local Laws of Worcester County being Article 24 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1961 Edition and 1972 Supplement) be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 24

[Any] UPON CONVICTION, ANY person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this sub-title or of any regulation [validly in force thereunder] shall be guilty of a misdemeanor[,] and [upon conviction thereof] shall be subject to a fine not exceeding [One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00)] $1,000, or
