

institutions and places of confinement in the state under the sentence or order of any authority. The County Council shall not pay the Sheriff additional compensation for any service he renders in discharging his official duties. The County Council is not liable for any other fee or compensation to the sheriff except for the board and keeping of prisoners in the county jail.

(4) The County Council shall levy each year sufficient funds to pay the salaries and expenses of the Sheriff's office.

(5) All deputies, except the chief deputy; clerical assistant; matron; cook and other employees employed are subject to the "personnel provisions" of the charter of Wicomico County and the rules and regulations passed by the County Council pursuant thereto. If a deputy subject to the personnel provisions is promoted to chief deputy, then [upon] ON his removal from the office of chief deputy for other than cause, he shall revert to a deputy with the same status which he had prior to his appointment as chief deputy. A chief deputy who is not a deputy subject to the personnel provisions prior to his appointment as chief deputy, if removed from office for any reason shall not automatically revert to a deputy.

(c) Provide for a master jury wheel or a device similar in purpose and function such as a properly programmed electronic data processing system or device into which the names of those selected at random shall be placed. The plan shall specify a minimum number of names to be placed initially in the master jury wheel, which shall be at least [one half of one] 0.50 percent of the total number of persons on the lists used as sources of names for the county; but if this number of names is cumbersome and unnecessary, or inadequate, the plan may fix a smaller or larger number of names to be placed in the master wheel. In all cases the number shall be at least 200. The jury judge may order additional names, selected at random, to be placed in the master jury wheel as he considers necessary. The plan shall provide for periodic emptying and refilling of the master jury wheel at specified times and shall assure that this periodic refilling places in the master jury wheel names from voter registration lists used in the general election preceding the time of refilling;
