

the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates be requested to appoint a commission of twelve persons, six from the Senate of Maryland, and six from the House of Delegates of Maryland, for the purpose of giving systematic and intensive study and review to all aspects of property taxation, including, but not limited to, categories of property subject to taxation, the method and rate of assessments, categories of property exempt from taxation, tax credits, tax rates, and the general administration of property taxation, for the purpose of reducing the financial burden on local property taxpayers, and determining alternatives to reliance by local governments on the property tax as a primary source of revenue; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the commission shall make a report of its study and examination together with such recommendations as it may adopt to the General Assembly on or before June 30, 1976; and be it further]]

RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Governor, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates be requested to appoint a commission for the purpose of giving systematic and intensive study and review to all aspects of property taxation, including, but not limited to, categories of property subject to taxation, the method and rate of assessments, categories of property exempt from taxation, tax credits, tax rates, and the General Administration of Property taxation for the purpose of reducing the financial burden on local property taxpayers, and determining alternatives to reliance by local governments on the property tax as a primary source of revenue; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the President of the Senate appoint to the commission [[six]] five members of the Senate, that the speaker of the House of Delegates appoint to the Commission [[six]] five members of the House of Delegates, that the Governor appoint to the Commission [[six]] five elected or appointed officials from the counties and Baltimore City, and four persons with knowledge and experience in the tax and revenue field to be selected one each from lists submitted by the Section of Taxation of the Maryland State Bar Association, Inc., the Maryland State Chamber of Commerce, the Maryland Association of Certified Public Accountants, and the Maryland Council of the AFL-CIO, and that the Governor appoint one of the members to be chairman of the Commission; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the commission shall make a report of its study and examination together with such recommendations as it may adopt to the General Assembly on or before October 30, 1975; and be it further