

including court rules; establishing certain guidelines for the publication, pricing and distribution of the Register; authorizing the making of contractual arrangements; establishing certain procedures for the determination of official texts and amendments thereto; providing for the effective date of certain documents with exceptions; providing certain notice and hearing requirements and procedures; establishing certain presumptions pertaining to the legal effect of certain documents; establishing a Division of State Documents and an Administrator thereof; providing certain qualifications, duties, tenure, selection and removal procedures relating to the Administrator; providing certain limitations on the taking effect of certain rules and regulations; providing for the publication of certain executive orders; clarifying and changing certain procedures relating to the adoption, compilation and interpretation of certain rules and regulations adopted by certain agencies; and generally relating to the Maryland Register and ~~[[to]]~~ the Code of Maryland Regulations.

May 31, 1974.

Honorable John Hanson Briscoe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 391.

This bill provides for a Maryland Register and a Code of Maryland Regulations. Senate Bill 165, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 31, 1974, accomplishes the same purpose, and therefore it is unnecessary for me to sign House Bill 391.

Sincerely,
/s/ Marvin Mandel
Governor

House Bill No. 430 - Plans for Condominiums

AN ACT concerning

Condominiums - Certification of Plans