

House Bill No. 871 - Retirement Credit for Military Service
 AN ACT concerning

[[Teachers']] Retirement [[System]] Systems -
 Military Service Credit

FOR the purpose of [[amending the provision of the Teachers' Retirement System regarding military service credit, deleting the requirement that credit may only be given to members who were teachers when entering military service;]] providing for military service credit, not to exceed five years, to any member of [[a]] the retirement [[system]] systems of the State [[or any subdivision]], after ten years of creditable service, to be funded by the State or other governmental employing agency; and precluding credit to members who have received military service credit under another retirement system, for which benefits have been or will be received; and clarifying the language.

May 31, 1974.

Honorable John Hanson Briscoe
 Speaker of the House of Delegates
 State House
 Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 871.

This bill provides for certain military service credits to members of a State retirement system.

Senate Bill 540, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 31, 1974, accomplishes the same purpose as House Bill 871.

Therefore, it is unnecessary for me to sign House Bill 871.

Sincerely,
 /s/ Marvin Mandel
 Governor
