

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

8. Any violation of this Order shall be punishable as a misdemeanor and shall subject the offender to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or not more than sixty (60) days incarceration, or both, upon conviction thereof.

December 6, 1973

Honorable Marvin Mandel
Governor
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear Governor Mandel:

Pursuant to the responsibility placed on the Joint Standing Committee on Administrative, Executive and Legislative Review by Chapter 1 of the Acts of the Second Special Session of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1973, the Committee must receive and consider Executive Orders promulgated by virtue of the presently existing energy crisis.

On December 5, 1973, the members of the Committee received copies of Executive Order No. 3 which authorizes the Director of the Energy Policy Office to prepare an inventory of present and projected supplies of and needs for gasoline and similar products within the State.

On December 6, 1973, in a meeting open to the press and to the public, the Committee received testimony on the Executive Order. Following the testimony and after appropriate discussion, a motion was made and seconded to approve the Executive Order as written. The recorded roll-call vote on the motion was as follows:

	Yeas	Nays
The Chairman, Senator McAuliffe	X
The Vice-Chairman, Delegate C. Hickman	X
Senator Boyer	X
Delegate Doolan	X
Delegate Linton	X
Senator Lipin	X
Delegate Malone	X
Senator Pascal	X
Delegate Redding (Absent)
Senator Stone (Absent due to illness)

By virtue of my authority as Chairman, I certify
