punishable as a misdemeanor and shall subject the offender to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or not more than sixty (60) days incarceration, or both, upon conviction thereof.

December 13, 1973

Honorable Marvin Mandel
Governor
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear Governor Mandel:

Pursuant to the responsibility placed on the Joint Standing Committee on Administrative, Executive and Legislative Review by Chapter 1 of the Acts of the Second Special Session of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1973, the Committee must receive and consider Executive Orders promulgated by virtue of the presently existing energy crisis.

On December 11, 1973, the members of the Committee received copies of Executive Order No. 4, which makes January 2, 3 and 4, 1974, a school holiday throughout the State.

On December 12, 1973, in a meeting open to the press and to the public, the Committee received testimony on the Executive Order. Following the testimony and after appropriate discussion, a motion was made and seconded to approve the Executive Order as written. The recorded roll-call vote on the motion was as follows:

	Yeas	Nays
The Chairman, Senator McAuliffe	x
The Vice-Chairman, Delegate C. Hickman	x
