

psychologists, or an optometrist or optometrists, to persons who become subscribers to such plan under contracts which entitle each subscriber to certain hospital, medical, chiropodial, chiropractic, pharmaceutical, dental, PSYCHOLOGICAL, or optometric care or any of them, shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this subtitle, and by no other law relating to insurance unless such law is referred to under this subtitle, and no law hereafter enacted shall apply to such corporations, unless they are expressly designated therein, and specifically refer to such corporations.

461.

There may be a provision as follows:

"Illegal occupation: The [insured] INSURER shall not be liable for any loss to which a contributing cause was the insured's commission of or attempt to commit a felony or to which a contributing cause was the insured's being engaged in an illegal occupation."

540.

The benefits required under § 539 of this article shall be payable without regard to the fault or nonfault of the named insured or the recipient in causing or contributing to the accident, and without regard to any collateral source of medical, hospital, or wage continuation benefits. Where the insured has coverage for both the benefits required under § 539 and the collateral benefits, the insurer or insurers may coordinate the policies to provide for nonduplication of such benefits; subject, however, to appropriate reductions in premiums for one or both of said coverages approved by the Insurance Commissioner, and the named insured shall have the right to elect or reject the coordination of policies and nonduplication of benefits[,]. If the insured elects to coordinate, he shall indicate in writing which policy is to become primary. An insurer paying benefits pursuant to § 539 of this article shall have no right of subrogation and no claim against any other person or insurer to recover any such benefits by reason of the alleged fault of such other person in causing or contributing to the accident.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1974.

Approved April 9, 1974.
