

November

16

181

Cooper and John Smith all of the County of Plautons acknowledged themselves Indebted unto the right Honourable the Lord Prop^r in the sum of fifty pounds of money of Maryland - (that is to say) Volentius Synter in the sum of fifty pounds and John Cooper and John Smith in the sum of twenty five pounds each to be made and Satisfied on their body goods and Chattels Land and Tenements to the use of his said Lordship his heirs and Successors upon condition that the said Volentius do make his personal appearance before the Justices of our next County Court to be hold for the County aforesaid to answer unto a certain Indictment for Assaulting the said Lord Grosvenor and in the mean time to keep the peace and be of good behaviour ~~therein to be kept~~ Then this recognizance is given and remain in full force in Law

His Lordship's Court County of Plautons 16th November Court 1736

Hugh O'Neil } We of the grand Jury for the County aforesaid do present Hugh O'Neil for not keeping a sufficient stable and provender to entertain horses belonging to travellers by Information of Edward Harris

John Brown Foreman
The Court orders the Clerk of Indictments to Exhibit an Informant against the said Hugh O'Neil by next March Court

His Lordship's Court County of Plautons 16th November Court 1736

Richard Grosvenor } We of the grand Jury for the County aforesaid do present Richard Grosvenor for an Assault on the body of Volentius Synter by Information of James Smith and James Ringgold Son of William Ringgold Arthur Miller, Thomas Skipper

John Brown Foreman
Thereupon the Court orders the Clerk of Indictments to Exhibit