CHAPTER 125

(Senate Bill 243)

AN ACT concerning

Maryland Community Mental Health Services

FOR the purpose of clarifying the membership of the Mental Health Advisory Committee; providing for ex officio members to serve on a rotating basis; clarifying the duties of the regional mental health director; clarifying language; and generally revising the Maryland Community Mental Health Services Act so as to more clearly state and specify the authority, duties, funding, and responsibilities of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, the governing body of each county and Baltimore City, cooperating agencies, associations and nonprofit organizations which are jointly engaged in this state-wide cooperative program.

BY repealing and re-enacting, with amendments,
