

period. On and after July 1, 1969, upon the death of any licensed broker, any one member of his immediate family who has been licensed as a real estate salesman for three years previously and continuously, by application to the Real Estate Commission and payment of the required fee shall be licensed as a real estate broker after having passed the real estate [brokers] BROKERS' license examination, without the necessity of having fulfilled the educational requirements before taking the examination. Such license shall remain in force for a period of four [(4)] years during which the broker must fulfill the educational requirements that were required at the time of his examination. Failure to complete the educational requirements will be cause for nonrenewal by the Commission.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1975.

Approved April 8, 1975.

CHAPTER 194

(House Bill 141)

AN ACT concerning

Maryland Automobile Insurance Fund -
Rejection or Cancellation of Insurance

FOR the purpose of clarifying certain language relating to the power of the executive director to cancel the insurance of a policyholder whose driving license becomes suspended or revoked while he is insured by the Fund providing that if the policy of insurance under the Fund covers a spouse or other household member of the family of the policyholder, the cancellation of the policy shall not cancel such coverage of a spouse or family member whose driver's license has not been suspended or revoked, and requiring the insurer to reclassify the rate of risk of such spouse or family member for premium purposes; allowing the policyholder to appeal the decision of the executive director to the special board; providing that the policyholder's policy remains in effect on appeal until the special board makes a decision; and generally relating to the cancellation or rejection of certain insurance.
