Article 43 - Health

42A.

(a) Each county and Baltimore City during the fiscal year 1971 and each year thereafter shall place on deposit with the State Department of Health, funds equal to 20% of the costs for the hospital care of indigent and medically indigent persons in the respective political subdivisions, to permit the State Department of Health to pay 100% of current costs for the hospital care of those persons, provided that for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 1974, and for each fiscal year thereafter the maximum amount of payment by any county or Baltimore City shall not exceed one half of the amount of payment actually paid for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 1973. The amount to be [be] placed on deposit with the State Department of Health for each fiscal year will be that amount specified for the respective political
