

be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 84 - Seamen

2.

On complaint on oath being made by the master of a vessel, or some person in [his] THE MASTER'S behalf, that a seaman or [boy apprenticed] APPRENTICE has deserted from [his] THE vessel, and that [he] THE SEAMAN OR APPRENTICE is harbored, secreted or detained, any District Court judge may issue a warrant under his OR HER hand and seal [to cause] FOR A search to be made in any place [wherein the said] WHERE THE seaman or apprentice is supposed to be harbored or secreted.

SECTION [[7]] 6. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Sections 34, 53, and 62 of Article 88B - State Police, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Replacement Volume and 1974 Supplement) be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 88B - State Police

34.

If a member of the State Police becomes physically incapable of performing his OR HER duties and [such] THE disability is the result of an accident or injuries occurring in the course of duty or is the result of sickness, accident or disease contracted in the course of duty and if [such] THE member has been in the Department for ten years or more, then he OR SHE shall be entitled to the same retirement pension as provided for in § 31[, provided that such employee be], IF THE MEMBER IS found, after medical examination given by a medical board of three physicians, consisting of the medical examiner of the [Department of] Maryland State Police and two other physicians to be selected by the board of trustees of the retirement and pensions system of Maryland State Police and acceptable to the State Police [Department] employee concerned, to be physically incapable of performing his OR HER duties.

If any member of the old retirement and pension system of the Maryland State Police dies before retirement, or after retirement from service on a pension, there shall be paid to [his widow, if any, and to continue during her widowhood] THE SURVIVING SPOUSE, AS LONG AS HE OR SHE REMAINS UNMARRIED, a pension equal to [twenty-five per centum of his] 25 PERCENT OF THE DECEASED MEMBER'S annual remuneration. If the member