

time of [his] retirement; and

(b) A pension of sixty-six and two-thirds [per centum] PERCENT of his OR HER average final compensation, but in no event shall his OR HER total special disability retirement allowance exceed his OR HER average final compensation.

(c) Upon the death of a member retired on a special disability retirement allowance, one half of the allowance calculated above shall be continued to [his] widow, if he leaves a widow, to continue during her widowhood; or if there be no widow,] THE MEMBER'S SURVIVING SPOUSE, AS LONG AS THE SURVIVING SPOUSE REMAINS UNMARRIED. IF THERE IS NO SURVIVING SPOUSE or if the [widow] SURVIVING SPOUSE dies or remarries before the youngest child of [such] THE deceased retired member [shall have] HAS attained the age of 18, then to [his] OR HER child or children under [said age if he] 18 IF HE OR SHE leaves children, divided in such manner as the board in its discretion [shall determine] DETERMINES to continue, as a joint and survivorship pension for the benefit of the child or children under [said age] 18 until every child dies or attains [said age] THE AGE OF 18.

(7) (a) Once each year during the first five years following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, and once in every three-year period thereafter, the board of trustees may, and upon his application shall, require any disability beneficiary who has not yet attained the age of 50 to undergo a medical examination, [such] THE examination to be made at the place of residence of [such] THE beneficiary or other place mutually agreed upon, by the medical board. [Should] IF any disability beneficiary who has not yet attained the age of 50 [refuse] REFUSES to submit to [such] THE medical examination, his OR HER allowance may be discontinued until [his] withdrawal of [such] THE refusal, and should [his] THE refusal continue for one year, all [his] THE rights in and to [his] THE pension may be revoked by the board of trustees.

(b) [Should] IF the medical board [report and certify] REPORTS AND CERTIFIES to the board of trustees that any disability beneficiary is engaged in or is able to engage in a gainful occupation paying more than the difference between his OR HER retirement allowance and his OR HER average final compensation and [should] IF the board of trustees [concur in such] CONCURS IN THE report, then the amount of [his] THE pension shall be reduced to an amount which, together with his OR HER annuity and the amount earnable by him OR HER, shall equal the amount of his OR HER average final
