

unlawful employment practice for an employer to establish standards concerning an employee's dress and grooming [on the basis of the employee's sex provided that] IF the standards are directly related to the nature of the employment of the employee; (3) it is not an unlawful employment practice for a school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning to hire and employ employees of a particular religion if the school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is, in whole or in substantial part, owned, supported, controlled, or managed by a particular religion or by a particular religious corporation association, or society or if the curriculum of the school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is directed toward the propagation of a particular religion; and (4) it is not unlawful for an employer, employment agency or labor organization to observe the terms of a bona fide seniority system or any bona fide employee benefit plan such as a retirement, pension or insurance plan, which is not a subterfuge to evade the purposes of this subtitle; however, no employee benefit plan shall excuse the failure to hire any individual.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1975.

Approved April 22, 1975.

CHAPTER 334

(Senate Bill 553)

AN ACT concerning

Motor Vehicle Fuel Tax - Interest and Penalties

FOR the purpose of providing for certain interest and penalties to be assessed for delinquent filing of motor vehicle fuel tax reports and delinquent payment of the tax; providing that if vendor and purchaser are both liable for the tax, an assessment against one does not bar an assessment against the other; correcting certain language; and relating generally to the motor vehicle fuel tax.
