

to July 1, 1971, the perfection of which is continued after July 1, 1971, by use of either of the procedures permitted under this section shall be deemed continuously perfected from the date of filing of the original financing statement, so long as compliance has been made with all other appropriate provisions of this [subtitle] TITLE.

9-402. Formal requisites of financing statement; amendments.

(1) A financing statement is sufficient if it is signed by the debtor and the secured party, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor and contains a statement indicating the types, or describing the items, of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. When the financing statement covers crops growing or to be grown or goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also contain a description of the real estate concerned. A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by both parties.

(2) A financing statement which otherwise [complied] COMPLIES with subsection (1) is sufficient although it is signed only by the secured party when it is filed to perfect a security interest in

(a) Collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this State. Such a financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this State under such circumstances.

(b) Proceeds under § 9-306, if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. Such a financing statement must describe the original collateral.

(3) A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with subsection (1):

Name of debtor (or assignor)
Address:
Name of secured party (or assignee)
Address:
