

deceased employee, not to exceed, however, a maximum of sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wage of the State of Maryland as determined by the Department of Employment Security, as provided in § 36 (2) of this article and not less than a minimum of twenty-five dollars per week unless the deceased employee's established weekly wages were less than twenty-five dollars per week at the time of the injury in which event the compensation shall be an amount equal to the average weekly wages, and to continue to be paid during total dependency but not to exceed $45,000.00, except as otherwise provided in this section. If a surviving wife, husband, or child continues to be totally dependent after the total amount of $45,000.00 has been paid, further payments to the surviving wife, husband, or child shall be paid at the same weekly rate during his or her total dependency. If a surviving wife, husband or child, except as set forth in paragraph (d) herein, who is wholly dependent at the time of death becomes thereafter wholly or partially self-supporting, payments shall nevertheless continue until the total sum of $45,000.00 has been paid, and thereafter further benefits shall cease. It is the intention herein that a surviving wife or husband who is wholly dependent at the time of death shall receive at least the total sum of $45,000.00, even though she or he becomes wholly or partially self-supporting before that sum is paid. The Commission has continuing jurisdiction to determine whether the surviving wife, husband, or child has become wholly or partially self-supporting, and to suspend, terminate or reinstate suspended or terminated payments of compensation. The provisions of this paragraph 8 (a) which provide for a continuation of payments until the total sum of $45,000 has been paid do not apply to a widow or widower who remarries; for this person the payments shall cease as of the time of remarriage, but he may receive and keep the payments made under paragraph 8 (i) of this section.

(b) If there are no wholly dependent persons at the time of the death, but there are partly dependent persons, those partly dependent shall receive compensation as follows: The weekly payments to such dependents shall be in the amount of sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wages of the deceased employee not to exceed, however, a maximum of sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wage of the State of Maryland as determined by the Department of Employment Security, as provided in § 36 (2) of this article and shall be that percentage of the maximum weekly rate of compensation as the weekly earnings of each partly dependent person bears to the average weekly wages of the deceased, in no case to exceed the maximum of the weekly rate of compensation,
