

(h) Nonresident alien dependents may be officially represented by the consular officers of the nation of which such alien or aliens may be citizens or subjects, and in such cases the consular officers shall have the right to receive, for distribution to such nonresident alien dependents, all compensation awarded hereunder, and the receipt of such consular officers shall be a full discharge of all sums paid to and received by them.

(i) In case of the remarriage of a wholly dependent widow or widower of a deceased employee, without dependent children at the time of the remarriage, she or he as the case may be shall receive two years compensation. In case of the remarriage of a partially dependent widow or widower of a deceased employee, without dependent children at the time of the remarriage, she or he, as the case may be, shall receive two years compensation, but the total sum of the payments made prior to remarriage shall not exceed $17,500.00. No widow or widower shall receive any benefits under this article where the marriage shall have taken place after the person entitled to benefits hereunder shall have been injured, provided there are no dependent children.

(j) A husband or wife of an injured employee, who has deserted said employee for more than one year prior to the time of the injury or subsequently shall not be a beneficiary under this article.

(k) The benefits in case of death shall be paid to such one or more of the dependents of the decedent for the benefit of all the dependents as may be determined by the Commission, which may apportion the benefits among the dependents in such manner as it may deem just and equitable. The dependent or persons to whom benefits are paid shall apply the same to the use of the several beneficiaries thereof according to their respective claims upon the decedent for support, in compliance with the findings and direction of the Commission.

(9) (a) When as the result of an injury, an employee is disabled from performing work for which he was previously qualified, he shall be entitled to vocational rehabilitation as reasonably necessary to restore him to suitable employment. The employer and insurer shall pay the expenses of the vocational rehabilitation. The Commission shall refer the employee to an appropriate rehabilitation evaluation agency for evaluation of the practicability of, need for, and type of training necessary and appropriate to render the employee fit for a remunerative occupation. Vocational rehabilitation training shall not extend for a period of
