

10-104. Laws not repealed.

(1) [Subtitle] TITLE 7 on documents of title does not repeal or modify any laws prescribing the form or contents of documents of title or the services or facilities to be afforded by bailees, or otherwise regulating bailees' businesses in respects not specifically dealt with herein; but the fact that such laws are violated does not affect the status of a document of title which otherwise complies with the definition of a document of title (§ 1-201).

(2) [This] TITLES 1 THROUGH 10 OF THIS article [does] DO not repeal §§ 15-301 through 15-311 of the Estates Article of the Code, which is cited as the Maryland Uniform Act for the Simplification Of Fiduciary Security Transfers, and if in any respect there is any inconsistency between that act and [subtitle] TITLE 8 of this article on investment securities the provisions of the former act shall control.

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE

THE MARYLAND UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

In preparing the Commercial Law Article, the Commission to Revise the Annotated Code included present Article 95B (Uniform Commercial Code) as Titles 1 through 10 of the Article. Although the style and organization of the Uniform Commercial Code differ from general revision guidelines, the Commission concluded that it would retain the present language, which is generally uniform with that of other jurisdictions and with that of the Official Text of the Uniform Act; consequently, except for the few corrective changes noted below, these titles appear as originally enacted, without change.

Changes in nomenclature required by the incorporation of present Article 95B into the Commercial Law Article are as follows:

The phrase "Titles 1 through 10 of this Article" is substituted for "this Article"; "Title" is substituted for "Subtitle"; and "Subtitle" is substituted for "Part." (In the Official Text, these terms appear, respectively, as "Act," "Article," and "Part.")

The "Short Titles" of the Uniform Commercial Code are each amended to refer to the "Maryland" Uniform Commercial Code; see, e.g., §§ 1-101 and 2-101. This is done to indicate that a citation is to the Uniform Act as enacted by the State of Maryland and not to the Official Text or to the Act as adopted by other states. The change conforms to revision guidelines, as previously
