

(1) Conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude or of any criminal offense the effect of which is to prevent or interfere with the performance of board duties.

(2) Failure to regularly attend meetings of the board.

(3) Failure to carry out duties assigned by the board or its chairman.

(4) Acceptance of other office or the conduct of other business conflicting with or tending to conflict with performance of board duties.

206B.

Any person aggrieved by any decision or action or failure to act on the part of the Secretary or any department or other agency within the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene for which an appeal to the board of review of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene is provided by § 206A of this article[, shall be entitled to] MAY appeal in the manner [hereinafter] set forth IN THIS SECTION. [, provided however, that prior] PRIOR to [the] ITS commencement [thereof] the person so aggrieved shall make known the basis of the complaint to the person or persons responsible for the decision or the conduct of the action or of the withholding of the action, as the case may be, together with a request that [the same] IT be reviewed. If a satisfactory resolution has not occurred within [thirty (30)] 30 days thereafter, the complainant may proceed as follows:

(1) Any complainant seeking further review shall set forth the nature of the complaint in writing, wherein it shall be outlined in detail with a full description of all facts and circumstances pertinent [thereto] TO IT. The complaint shall be filed with the chief executive officer of the department or other agency to which application for review is made, if there be one, but if there be none, then with any member of its governing body. Receipt of such complaint shall be promptly acknowledged in writing and a copy transmitted to the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene. The department or other agency shall then proceed to investigate the complaint. Subject to such extensions of time as the parties may agree upon, a decision shall be rendered in writing and a copy thereof sent to the complainant within [thirty (30)] 30 days of the filing of the complaint. A record shall be kept of all complaints and their disposition which shall be open to public inspection during regular business hours.