

granted to the Commission or the County Commissioners of Prince George's County. If this paragraph shall for any reason be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of the General Assembly that this subsection would have been enacted without the invalid portions.

(d) 1959 Addition in Prince George's County. The following described areas within Prince George's County are hereby added to and included within the Metropolitan District:

(1) Beginning at a point which is the point of intersection of the present centerline of the Colesville-Beltsville Road, also known as the Odell Road, with the Prince George's-Montgomery County Line, thence generally northeasterly about 1.6 miles along the aforesaid county line to its intersection with the dividing line between Election District No. 1 (Vansville) and Election District No. 10 (Laurel), thence generally easterly about 6.8 miles along the aforesaid dividing line to its intersection with the dividing line between Election District No. 1 (Vansville) and Election District No. 14 (Bowie), thence generally southerly about 4.9 miles along the aforesaid dividing line to its intersection with the dividing line between Election District No. 1 (Vansville) and Election District No. 21 (Berwyn), thence generally westerly about 3.0 miles along the aforesaid dividing line to its intersection with the present centerline of Edmonston Avenue and the present centerline of Beaver Dam Creek, thence generally southwesterly about 250 feet along the centerline of Beaver Dam Creek to its intersection with the present centerline of Indian Creek and the present Maryland-Washington Metropolitan District Boundary Line, thence generally northwesterly and westerly about 5.1 miles along the aforesaid boundary line to its intersection with the Prince George's-Montgomery County Line, said intersection being the point of beginning.

(2) All of Election District No. 12 (Oxon Hill) lying southeast of the existing Maryland-Washington Metropolitan District Boundary Line, excepting that portion of Oxon Hill Election District included in the following described area: Beginning at the intersection of the centerline of Allentown Road with the present centerline of the Temple Hills Road; thence generally northerly about 0.6 miles along the aforesaid centerline to its intersection with the present centerline of the Brinkley Road; thence westerly about 0.8 miles along the aforesaid centerline to its intersection with the present centerline of the right-of-way for the Potomac Electric Power Company transmission line (approximately 800 feet east of Henson Creek) thence generally southwesterly