

plan shall be by resolution of the Commission carried by the affirmative votes of not less than six members of the Commission, of whom not less than three members shall be from Montgomery County and not less than three members from Prince George's County[; provided that]. HOWEVER, for the adoption or amendment of a local master plan or a functional master plan which lies entirely within one county the affirmative votes of three members from that county shall prevail and [shall] be sufficient to adopt [said] THE plan. The resolution on the adoption or amendment of the plan shall refer expressly to the maps and descriptive and other matter intended by the Commission to form the whole or part of the plan, and the action taken shall be recorded on the map, plan, or descriptive matter by the identifying signature of the chairman and secretary-treasurer of the Commission.

(e) Adoption of plans identifying sites, structures, etc.

The Commission [is authorized and empowered to] MAY make and adopt and, from time to time, amend a plan which shall identify and designate sites, structures with their appurtenances and environmental settings, or districts having a historical, archeological, architectural or cultural value, provided that the criteria for [such] THE designation or identification [shall] IS not [be] inconsistent with the criteria applicable to the Maryland Historical Trust under article 41, section 181E(f) of the Annotated Code of Maryland. In making or amending of [such] THE plan, the Commission may establish advisory committees to assist it in the performance of its duties. The [said] plan shall constitute an amendment to the general plan for the Maryland-Washington Regional District except that [said] THE plan may include sites, structures with their appurtenances and environmental settings, or districts located in municipalities within Montgomery and Prince George's Counties, not subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, with the consent of the governing body of that municipality. Consent of the governing body shall constitute the agreement of the municipality to be bound by all rules and regulations governing such sites, structures with their appurtenances and environmental settings, or districts as may be enacted by the district council.

In the preparation and making of the plan and in the exercise of the zoning, planning, subdivision control, and other powers granted to it in this [subheading] TITLE, the Commission may act in conjunction and cooperation with the National Capital Planning Commission, created by Act of Congress approved April 30,
