

of the notice.

(d) [It is the duty of the] THE Board of Education of Prince George's County [to] SHALL comply with all the buildings regulations adopted by the County Commissioners for that portion of the Regional District within Prince George's County. [It is further the duty of the] THE Board of Education [to] ALSO SHALL provide suitable fire escapes for all school buildings [heretofore erected and now] in use [where said] IF THE buildings are more than one story in height, and also [to] provide suitable fire escapes for all [said] THE buildings now in course of construction or hereafter [to be] erected. [In the event of the failure of] IF the Board of Education FAILS to comply with the provisions of this subheading, the County Commissioners of Prince George's County [has the power to] MAY contract for the doing of [such] THE work and [may] deduct the cost thereof from the amount levied for the support of schools in Prince George's County.

[97.] 8-119.

No permit for the erection of any building within a subdivision within the Regional District [shall] MAY be issued unless the road giving access to the lot upon which the building is proposed to be located [shall have] HAS the legal status of a public road or [shall have been] WAS dedicated to public use on May 24, 1939, or corresponds in its exact location with the road shown on a subdivision plat approved by the Commission [,] or with a master plan of highways or plat adopted by the Commission, or is on a private right-of-way or easement approved as adequate by the governing body of the county in which [such] THE private right-of-way or easement is located.

[98.] 8-120.

(a) No building or other structure [shall] MAY be erected or structurally altered in the Regional District without the issuance of a building permit, and no [such] permit [shall] MAY be given except in conformity with the provisions of this Article and of the regulations enacted by the respective District Councils. In that portion of the Regional District in Prince George's County, construction or structural alteration of a building or structure [shall] MAY not begin until and unless the building permit is approved by the Commission as to zoning requirements and as to the requirements of Section [97] 8-114 of this [subheading] TITLE. No building permit [shall be] IS required for buildings and structures to be used exclusively for purposes of agriculture upon land used exclusively for agriculture. In any part of the Regional District in which there does