No. 6

(Senate Joint Resolution 20)

A Senate Joint Resolution concerning

Historical Buildings

FOR the purpose of urging the Maryland Historical Trust to expedite an inventory of Maryland's Revolutionary Landmarks.

WHEREAS, Landmarks of the Revolutionary period are abundant throughout the State of Maryland; and

WHEREAS, The State of Maryland is rich in buildings and sites of the Revolutionary period; and

WHEREAS, These landmarks are both sites and structures used for purposes of courthouses, churches, meeting places, schools, taverns, residences, warehouses, mills, industrial sites, shipping ports, Indian old towns. These landmarks, although tangible evidences of a stirring period of the nation's history illuminating the past and giving Marylanders needed perspective for the future, are largely unmarked; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the General Assembly urges the Maryland Historical Trust, the agency of the State responsible for completing the Maryland Register of historic sites and places, to use the funds appropriated by the General Assembly for this purpose to expedite an inventory of Maryland's Revolutionary Landmarks to be completed no later than 1977; and be it further
