

$10,000. Under Senate Bill 586, however, any interested person may seek an injunction if the Department does not act. While there are provisions permitting the recovery of a civil penalty also, the Senate Bill is unclear as to who may initiate such action - the Attorney General, any interested person, or both.

As the basic provisions of Senate Bill 586 are included within the provisions of House Bill 319 and since House Bill 319 is more clearly worded and more effectively expresses the legislative intent behind the two bills, I have decided to sign House Bill 319.

Consequently, it is unnecessary for me to sign Senate Bill 586.

Sincerely,
/s/ Marvin Mandel
Governor

Senate Bill No. 592 - Pensions for Prior Members of General Assembly

AN ACT concerning

Pensions for Prior Members of the General Assembly

FOR the purpose of making specific provisions for pensions payable to certain prior members of the General Assembly who are not members [[in]] of the General Assembly of 1975; and relating generally to the requirements and procedures for benefits to those persons under the State Employees' Retirement System.

May 15, 1975.

Honorable Steny H. Hoyer
President of the Senate
State House
Annapolis, Maryland

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 592.

This bill extends certain pension benefits provided