

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 932.

This bill provides that full time masters in chancery and masters in juvenile causes in Prince George's County are included in the contributory plan of the Judges' Retirement System.

House Bill 1098, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 15, 1975, provides that any full-time court master in any county or in Baltimore City is included in the contributory plan of the Judge's Retirement System. The provisions of Senate Bill 932 are thus included within the provisions of House Bill 1098.

Since the purpose of Senate Bill 932 is accomplished by the signing of House Bill 1098, it is unnecessary for me to sign Senate Bill 932.

Sincerely,
/s/ Marvin Mandel
Governor
