

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

pleasure of the Governor:

- (a) James M. Slay, Jr., Assistant to the Secretary of State of Maryland, Chairman.
 - (b) Norman Polvoy, Deputy Attorney General of Maryland.
 - (c) Thomas Marshall, Assistant Secretary for the Department of Licensing and Regulation.
 - (d) George P. Timberlake, Executive Director of the Baltimore City Unit of the American Cancer Society.
 - (e) Irma B. Kline, of Community Resource Consultants, formerly associated with the Washington-Baltimore Chapter of the National Society of Fund Raisers.
2. The Commission shall study and evaluate the organizational structure, level of permanent and temporary administrative staffing, budget, accounting, and reporting systems and procedures, and the fund raising activities of charitable organizations soliciting funds in Maryland.
 3. The Commission shall also review the existing laws of Maryland, similar laws of the Federal Government and other States, if any, and shall report its findings and recommendations to the Governor and the General Assembly.

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF SEPTEMBER 30, 1974

OYSTER DREDGING

WHEREAS, Pursuant to Chapter 403 of the acts of 1974, the General Assembly of Maryland added Section 4-307 to the Natural Resources Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1974 Volume and 1974 Supplement), authorizing the Potomac River Fisheries Commission to make, adopt and publish rules and regulations for the dredging of oysters with handscrapes in areas of the Potomac River within its jurisdiction, and to levy license fees for this dredging; and