persons not registered to vote. If necessary for the performance of registration or the convenience of the citizens of the town, the mayor may designate additional days as registration days. Registration shall be permanent, and no person is entitled to vote in town elections unless he is registered. The board of supervisors of elections shall keep the registration lists up to date by striking from the lists persons who are known to have died or to have moved out of town. The council, by ordinance, shall adopt and enforce any provisions necessary to establish and maintain a system of permanent registration and provide for a registration when necessary.

31. Appeal from action of board of supervisors of elections.

If any person is aggrieved by the action of the board of supervisors of elections in refusing to register or in striking off the name of any person, or by any other action he may appeal to the council. Any decision or action of the council upon such appeals may be appealed to the circuit court for the county within the time allowed for such appeals.

32. Filing certificates of nomination.

Persons may be nominated for elective office in the town by filing a certificate of nomination at the office of the board of supervisors of elections on or before the second Monday in April next preceding the town election. No person shall file for nomination to more than one elective office in the town at any one time.

33. Primary election; municipal meeting or convention.

(a) Time of holding; conduct of primary election. — A primary election or municipal meeting or convention shall be held in the town on the fourth Monday in April in every second even-numbered year, in order to select candidates for the general election on the second Tuesday in May. The primary election shall be conducted generally as specified in this subtitle for the conduct of special and general elections. Candidates' names shall appear in alphabetical order for the office sought, on the ballots or voting machine labels, with no party designation of any kind. If not more than ten persons have filed as candidates for the office of councilman, or if not more than two persons have filed for the office of mayor, no primary election shall be held as to that office or those offices, in those instances, those nominated for mayor or the nominees for councilmen shall be considered as nominees and their names shall be placed on the ballots or voting machines at the general election
