

VIENNA

may clearly indicate in the manner hereinbefore pointed out, whether the voter may wish his or her ballot AND/OR VOTING MACHINE cast for or against the proposition submitted. [All ballots used in all town elections of Vienna shall be printed in the same uniform type upon plain white printing paper of ordinary book weight in black ink, and the name of all candidates shall be printed upon all such ballots in clear, plain, bold and legible roman capitals twelve point (pica) type, and the printing of said names of said candidates shall also be uniform in style and appearance throughout the ballot. On the back and outside of all ballots shall be printed the words "Official Ballot for Commissioners of Vienna", the date of the election and a facsimile of the signature of the Clerk of the Commissioners of Vienna by whom the ballots have been prepared.]

[363. Judges of elections.

Richard James, Daniel J. Gore and J. Millard Reid, are hereby appointed Judges of Election, to hold the first election under this sub-title; and they shall give notice that the election will be held and the place and time thereof by handbills posted in public places in said town, at least ten days before the date thereof; which election shall be held on the first Monday of May, 1914, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient; [any vacancy in said judges caused by death or otherwise to be filled by the remaining judges). At which election all persons qualified as prescribed in Section 362 of this Article shall be entitled to vote for five persons for Commissioners having the necessary qualifications as herein prescribed. Such Judges of Election shall, however, before opening the polls, take the oath before some justice of the peace to permit every qualified voter to vote, and none other, and a majority of said judges shall have power to do all things committed unto said judges.]

366. Election procedure.

Said Commissioners shall, not more than thirty days and not less than ten days prior to an election of Commissioners, appoint three judges of election whose appointment shall be for a period of two months from the date thereof and who shall conduct the election according to the election laws of the State of Maryland; except, that the hours for holding the election shall be from three o'clock to seven o'clock p.m. except, further, that one of said judges may act as clerk of said election; and except, further, that no registration shall be required to entitle any adult citizen offering to vote to have his or her ballot received and counted. The said judges of election shall, at least seven days prior to
