

BALTIMORE COUNTY

of the board of appeals, as compensation, shall be paid at the rate of [eighteen hundred] THREE THOUSAND dollars per year, and shall receive also a per diem compensation of [thirty] FIFTY dollars for each day he actually serves as such.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, that this Act shall take effect [[July 1, 1973]] forty-five days after its enactment.

Approved July 9, 1973.

Bill No. 69-73

AN ACT to authorize the Humane Society of Baltimore County to pursue and take possession of any stray animals EXCEPT HORSES which may wander upon private property in Baltimore County, by adding new Section 13-27.1 to the Baltimore County Code, 1968, title "Health and Sanitation", Article III. Nuisances Generally.

WHEREAS, stray animals EXCEPT HORSES, either living in a wild state or wandering about at large, and not under anyone's control, are deemed to constitute a nuisance, and

WHEREAS, in order to protect the public health and general welfare of our citizens and to safeguard private property from possible damage by stray animals EXCEPT HORSES as well as to protect the animals themselves from possible harm, we find it necessary to delegate control of such animals to a society organized to prevent cruelty to and to foster the protections of animals; Now, therefore

Section 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNTY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE COUNTY, MARYLAND, that new Section 13-27.1 be and it is hereby added to the Baltimore County Code, 1968, title "Health and Sanitation", Article III. Nuisances Generally; said new section to read as follows:

Sec. 13-27.1 Stray Animals EXCEPT HORSES on Private Property

(a) The Humane Society of Baltimore County is empowered to pursue and take into possession any stray animal EXCEPT HORSES which has wandered upon private property located in Baltimore County.