- Group D member may transfer to Group E and the retirement service credits earned as a Group D member shall be used for the purpose of qualifying for normal retirement under Group E. Except for the contribution rate increase as of the effective date of transfer there shall be no additional charges levied on any member who transferred on or before July 1, 1970. No transfers shall be permitted after October 1, 1972. Any member who transfers after July 1, 1970, in addition to paying the contribution rate increase as of the effective date of transfer, shall pay the additional amount of contributions that would have been paid as a member of Group E from July 1, 1970, plus whatever interest payments determined due by the County Personnel Board.
- (6) Transfers from Group D to Group A. Whenever a Group D member transfers to a position covered under Group A, the normal retirement date shall be adjusted accordingly. There shall be no refund of the difference in member contributions which were made as a Group D member.
- Whenever a Group F member fully meets the medical standards for membership in Group A, B or E, a transfer shall be effected. An appropriate adjustment of contribution rate and elective early, normal and mandatory retirement dates shall be made. The member shall pay the additional amount of contributions that would have been paid from the original membership date as a member of the group to which transferred, plus whatever interest payments determined due by the County Personnel Board.
- (e) Normal Mandatory retirement date. The normal mandatory retirement date for a Group A, C or F member shall be the first day of the month following the member's sixty-fifth birthday. The normal mandatory retirement date for a Group B, D or E member shall be the first day of the month following the member's sixtieth birthday.
- (f) Mandatory retirement date extension. The County Personnel Board may grant one or more one-year extensions of active membership up to age seventy for a Group A, C or F member and up to age sixty-five for a Group B, D or E member in accordance with the following procedures:
- (1) Request for extension must be initiated by the member and must be favorably endorsed by the member's supervisors and the Chief Administrative Officer before it will be considered by the County Personnel
