

MONTGOMERY COUNTY

Board.

(2) The request and all endorsements must clearly demonstrate that the extension is in the best interest of the County.

(3) If deemed desirable by the County Personnel Board, the request for extension must be accompanied by a certification of the Medical Examiner that the member is medically acceptable for continuance in the position and also by a certification of the Personnel Director that all established requirements have been met.

(4) Request for an extension must be submitted by the member at least sixty days prior to mandatory retirement date.

The same request and endorsement procedures shall be followed by a member of a participating agency requesting an extension and shall be subject to all requirements established by the County Personnel Board.

(i) Administrative retirement on or after normal retirement date. The County Executive or Chief Administrative Officer may retire without cause any member under the supervision of the County Executive or Chief Administrative Officer who is eligible for normal retirement if the action is justified and demonstratively in the best interest of the County. The decision of the County Executive or the Chief Administrative Officer may be appealed to the Personnel Board. Appeal procedures provided in the Personnel Regulations shall be followed in making and handling appeals. If the employee does not appeal, such retirement shall not become effective without approval by the County Personnel Board. Such retirement shall be considered a separation from the County service in good standing and without prejudice. Any member who is retired May 1, 1970, or thereafter, shall receive a pension commencing immediately and the provisions of Section 33-45(c) shall be applicable in determining the amount of pension.

(j) Administrative retirement on or after elective early retirement date. The County Executive or the Chief Administrative Officer may retire without cause any member under the supervision of the County Executive or the Chief Administrative Officer who is eligible for elective early retirement if the action is justified and demonstratively in the best interest of the County. The decision of the County Executive or the Chief Administrative Officer may be appealed to the County Personnel Board. Appeal procedures provided in the Personnel Regulations shall be followed in making and
