SECTION 3. The repeal provided for in Section 2 hereof, shall not affect any offense or act committed or done or any penalty or forfeiture incurred or any contract or right established or accruing before the effective date of this enactment; nor shall such repeal affect any ordinance or resolution promising or guaranteeing the payment of money for the County, or authorizing the issuance of any bonds of the County or any evidence of the County's indebtedness, or any contract or obligation assumed by the County; nor shall such repeal affect any right granted by any ordinance or resolution of the County to any person, firm or corporation; nor shall such repeal affect the annual appropriation ordinance; nor shall such repeal affect any ordinance levying or imposing taxes not included herein; nor shall such repeal affect the zoning maps or any amendments thereto; nor shall such repeal affect any ordinance providing for local improvements and assessing taxes therefor; nor shall such repeal affect any resolution dedicating or accepting any plat or subdivision in the County; nor shall such repeal affect any Code or public record adopted by reference and not contained herein; nor shall such repeal be construed to revive any ordinance or part thereof that has been repealed by this enactment.

SECTION 4. Any and all additions or amendments to the Code, when passed in such form as to indicate the intention of the legislative body to make the same a part hereof, shall be deemed to be incorporated in the Code so that reference to the "Prince George's County Code, 1972 Edition", being Article 17 of the Code Of Public Local Laws of Maryland, shall be understood and intended to include such additions and amendments.

SECTION 5. In case of the amendment of any Section of the Code for which a penalty is not provided, the general penalty as provided in Section 1-123 of the Code shall apply to the Section as amended; or in case such amendment contains provisions for which a penalty other than the aforementioned general penalty is provided in another Section in the same Chapter, the penalty so provided in such other Section shall be held to relate to the Section so amended; unless such penalty is specifically repealed therein.
