

COUNTY LOCAL LAWS

Whenever any license issued under the provisions of this article has been lost or destroyed, the official issuing such a license shall have the power upon application under oath and upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) to issue another license upon which shall be endorsed the word "duplicate" in addition to all of the information which appeared upon the original license.

SECTION 30. Transfer of licenses

Any holder of a license under the provisions of this article including a receiver or trustee for the benefit of creditors may be permitted to transfer his place of business to some other location and/or sell or assign said license and transfer his stock in trade to another person provided that application for such transfer and/or sale shall be made and that a bulk transfer permit is obtained where the stock of alcoholic beverages is to be transferred whether by sale, gift, inheritance, assignment, or otherwise, and irrespective of whether or not consideration is paid and the new location and/or assignee shall be approved as in the case of original application for such license. Such transfer and/or assignment when made shall be endorsed upon the license by the official issuing the same upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) in addition to the cost of application and notice which shall be paid at the time of the filing of the application for transfer and/or sale. This section shall permit the transfer of location and the assignment of license in the same application.

SECTION 31. Vacation of premises by licensee

On the tenth day after the holder of any license issued under the provisions of this article shall have vacated or been evicted from the premises for which said license was issued, said license shall expire unless an application for approval of a transfer thereof to another location or assignment to another person has been approved or is then pending providing, however, that the official authorized to issue licenses may in his discretion postpone such expiration for an additional period not exceeding 20 days in any case to avoid any undue hardship.

SECTION 32. Display of licenses

Every person receiving a license under the provisions of this act, shall frame his license under glass, place the same so that it shall at all times be conspicuous and easily read in his place of business.

SECTION 33. Death of licensee
