

TALBOT COUNTY

Upon the death of the holder of any license issued under the provisions of this act, the license shall expire except as herein otherwise provided; provided, however, that upon application to the clerk of the court issuing such license and upon the payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) made by the personal representatives of the deceased licensee a certificate of permission may be granted for the continuation of the business in the name of such personal representatives for the benefit of the estate of the deceased for a period not exceeding 18 months from the date of any such permission unless the license shall sooner expire in which case upon application by the personal representatives as above provided a renewal license for a period not exceeding 18 months after the death of the license holder. Such certificates of permission and renewal licenses issued will be subject to the right of protest, revocation, suspension, and restriction as in other cases upon the payment of a pro rata license fee for such period and during the period of such continuation the said license and the personal representatives of the deceased shall be subject to all of the provisions of this act. The said personal representatives to which the aforesaid certificate has been granted may assign or transfer said license for the benefit of said estate and upon the approval of the application for the said transfer or assignment the said's license shall be considered reinstated upon the payment of the balance of the license fee which might be due to the expiration of the license year. If the business of the licensee be not continued as above provided, or if the said license be not transferred or assigned, the personal representatives shall be authorized to apply for and obtain any refund to which the deceased would have been entitled if his license had been surrendered for cancellation upon the date of his death.

SECTION 34. Election Days

It shall be unlawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment, or any other place where liquors are sold or for any person or persons, directly to sell, barter, give, or dispose of any spiritous or fermented liquors, ale, or beer or intoxication drinks of any kind within any election district or precinct of this County on the day of any general, special, or primary election hereafter to be held in such district or precinct during the hours when the polls are opened. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable for indictment and shall upon conviction be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each offense.
