FOR the purpose of correcting certain technical errors in the laws relating to courts and judicial proceedings.

BY repealing and re-enacting, with amendments,

Article - Courts and Judicial Proceedings
Sections 5-305, 7-302(c) and 9-202(c) (5)
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1974 Volume and 1974 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That Sections 5-305, 7-302(c) and 9-202(c) (5) of Article - Courts and Judicial Proceedings, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1974 Volume and 1974 Supplement) be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article - Courts and Judicial Proceedings

5-305.

A covenant, promise, agreement or understanding in, or in connection with or collateral to, a contract or agreement relating to the construction, alteration, repair, or maintenance of a building, structure, appurtenance or appliance, including moving, demolition and excavating connected with it, purporting to indemnify the promisee against liability for damages arising out of bodily injury to any person or damage to property caused by or resulting from the sole negligence of the promisee or indemnitee, his agents [of] OR employees, is against public policy and is void and unenforceable. This section does not affect the validity of any insurance contract, workmen's compensation, or any other agreement issued by an insurer.

7-302.

(c) Every political subdivision or municipality which has enacted or which shall enact an ordinance, law, or regulation controlling the parking of motor vehicles, or providing for the impounding of motor [vehicle] VEHICLES, shall provide that fines, penalties or forfeitures for the violation of said ordinances, laws, or regulations shall be paid directly to the political subdivision or municipality, and not to the District
