

applicant is satisfactory to the Board, and that the applicant successfully completes an eight-hour written examination in the principles and practice of land surveying. Where the evidence presented in and with the application does not appear to the Board to warrant the admission to the examination, the applicant may be required to present further evidence for the consideration of the Board.

(d) As a land surveyor-in-training;

(1) Graduation from a surveying or engineering curriculum of four scholastic years or more approved by the Board and the successful completion of an eight-hour written examination in the fundamentals of surveying; or

(2) Graduation from a surveying or engineering curriculum of four scholastic years or more or their equivalent other than the ones approved by the Board and a specific record of four years or more of additional experience in surveying work of a character satisfactory to the Board, and the successful completion of an eight-hour written examination in the fundamentals of surveying.

(e) As a property line surveyor:

Any person may be registered as a property line surveyor upon completion of the following two requirements:

(1) Acquires a specific record of eight years experience in property line surveying of a character satisfactory to the Board indicating he may be competent to practice property line surveying and presents evidence of such experience satisfactory to the Board.

(2) Successfully completes a written or oral examination in the fundamentals of property line surveying and the principles and practice of property line surveying.

(f) A person holding a certificate of registration to engage in the practice of engineering or land surveying on the basis of comparable qualifications, issued to him by a proper authority of a state, territory, or possession of the United States, or the District of Columbia, who, in the opinion of the Board, qualified under requirements equivalent to the requirements of this article as they existed at the time of such prior registration based on verified evidence may, upon application, be registered without taking the written examination provided for in this article.