

cou'd not b<sup>e</sup> sumon'd and the Sheriff returned a Non. of inven<sup>t</sup>ion against him. The D<sup>r</sup> fudau<sup>t</sup> Lynch b<sup>e</sup>ing sumon'd appear'd in person and plead<sup>d</sup> not guilty and putt himself out<sup>t</sup> the country and the said Nichola<sup>s</sup> w<sup>t</sup> a few d<sup>y</sup> also d<sup>r</sup> Jury being impannel<sup>d</sup> and swore<sup>d</sup> returned their verdict that they found for the D<sup>r</sup> fudau<sup>t</sup>.

D<sup>r</sup> fudau<sup>t</sup> w<sup>t</sup> Verdict and entering opp<sup>t</sup> Judge m<sup>t</sup> upon the same the said Nichola<sup>s</sup>

S<sup>r</sup> wall who aw<sup>t</sup>le<sup>r</sup> off with his w<sup>t</sup> found

- 1: The said Verdict is erroneous and against law b<sup>e</sup>ing found for the D<sup>r</sup> fudau<sup>t</sup> without any proof and against legal proof produced and off<sup>t</sup> by the Plaintiff sufficient to warrant the Court to give directions to the Jury to find for the Plaintiff w<sup>t</sup> they ought to have done
The D<sup>r</sup> fudau<sup>t</sup> to prove the Information first produced here<sup>t</sup> evidence vide v<sup>c</sup> to witness<sup>r</sup> Vaderwood, Capt<sup>r</sup> Lawrence, and John Comant, who all proved the said Capt<sup>r</sup> Efford to have come w<sup>t</sup> his ship to anchor in St. Marys river into St. James Creek, there at the time & measured in the Information to wit the first of January, and that then and th<sup>n</sup> he whilst the ship lay ther<sup>t</sup> had several goods and Merchandise to wit the hightea-kings<sup>r</sup> and coffee, some barrels of salt and other goods and Merchandise in the Information measured, w<sup>t</sup> in the night time putt a shew<sup>r</sup> at the house of the said Vaderwood and James Lyon ther<sup>t</sup> hard by and that they did believe those goods came from on board the said ship, and the said Vaderwood further deposed that he had been on board the said ship and that Capt<sup>r</sup> Efford declared to him that he had run himself into danger of being seized, for bringing unfor<sup>r</sup>mat<sup>e</sup> prohibited goods not admit<sup>d</sup> in England, and after Mr. Vaderwood advised whether the said ship had better through him<sup>r</sup> you Capt<sup>r</sup> Allen, Commander of His Maj<sup>s</sup> frigatt ther<sup>t</sup> in Virginia as was reported or submitte<sup>d</sup> to the office appointed by the Government of this province in which he then was, and the said Mr. Vaderwood advised him to submitte<sup>d</sup> to the Government. He<sup>r</sup> also further deposed that he did himself give to the said Nichola<sup>s</sup> S<sup>r</sup> wall the King's Collector to Inform<sup>r</sup> against the said goods, but that the said Nichola<sup>s</sup> S<sup>r</sup> wall had before made<sup>d</sup> information to the Government. That Mr. S<sup>r</sup> wall did come to his house and made<sup>d</sup> search of the goods ther<sup>t</sup> That the wine and other goods w<sup>t</sup> in the night time when he was a p<sup>r</sup>son putt into his tobacco and cellar but by whom he could not say, and further that he refused<sup>d</sup> with a Merchant named<sup>r</sup> Mr. Vaderwood Mr. Vaderwood hav<sup>d</sup> that these goods might b<sup>e</sup> permitted to be putt ther<sup>t</sup> w<sup>t</sup> he granted<sup>d</sup> and w<sup>t</sup> is agreeable to the D<sup>r</sup> fudau<sup>t</sup> of the said ship that all his w<sup>t</sup> done privately and clandestinely app<sup>r</sup>ort by the circumstances of his surveillance, and thus w<sup>t</sup> the substance of the said facts were deduced by w<sup>t</sup> it is apparent the said ship had not only imported prohibited goods not admit<sup>d</sup> in England, but had bro<sup>r</sup> bulk<sup>r</sup> and land<sup>r</sup> of her cargo on board<sup>r</sup> without entry her<sup>r</sup> against the forms of the Act of Parliament and yet the Jury would not find the said D<sup>r</sup> fudau<sup>t</sup> guilty against proofs and law.
- 2: The D<sup>r</sup> fudau<sup>t</sup> further to prov<sup>r</sup> the said Information produced to the Court and Jury the testimony of the said Christian Smith a Merchant of R<sup>r</sup>palace written by his own hand and by him sign<sup>d</sup> upon w<sup>t</sup> he was sworn and examined in the Provincial Court of this Province in open Court in the face of the Country being ther<sup>t</sup> summoned by due process upon the Information then exhibited in the presence of the said Mr. Lynch and upon Mr. Lynch his request, and w<sup>t</sup> oath was attested by the Clerk of the said Prov<sup>r</sup> Court being the Supreme Court of Law of the Province. His upper house of Assembly only excepted<sup>d</sup> and the same for attested is and remained a record of the same Court and though no copy made<sup>d</sup> off in this Court ad good Evidence for the King, and the rather in regard the said Christian Smith b<sup>e</sup>ing a Merchant not an inhabitant of this Province w<sup>t</sup> about his own affairs were transacted in our County and some time in another, and purchased in Virginia out of the Jurisdiction of this Court, and for could not b<sup>e</sup> had viva voce<sup>r</sup> at the trial of this cause, and yet the D<sup>r</sup> fudau<sup>t</sup> Lynch opposed the having the said

(Oath)