The D. f:id alledged that the goods might be bought in the Country, or that they might be duly cutted and imported and the Master Estid not being there might have his certificate of entry, but that is but an allegation to sue the law and is positively false for he ever had any entry, he ad may appear by Smith & Vnderwood's Evidence and the D. f:id produced no slight ppr. or evidence to prove his suggestion for his allegacous without proof and the D. f:id then on ground against law for all w<sup>t</sup> before the said Nicholas Swale who afterwards pray'd the D. f:id may be quashed and that the Judgment may pass for the said Nicholas who affid according to the law aforesaid to be bound as aforesaid.

Whereto being respondeant the Court was ordered that the same be copy'd for Mr. Vnderwood and the Court adjourned till this day com- fornight being the eighteenth day of April, when the reasons aforesaid are to be argued by the attorneys on both sides also consider'd on by the said Justices.

April the eighteenth One thousand six hundred & eighty five the Court sat again:
Mr. Carville d. f:id that the arguing the reasons might be deferred till noon day com- 8:00 night for two reasons: 1<sup>o</sup> because the said Nicholas Swale who affid er. f:id to be present himself and have him argued broadly because it was the w<sup>t</sup> of yesterday Anthony Vnderwood for the D. f:id d. f:id of the Court that no further or more D. f:id might be. 2<sup>o</sup> if specially Court being on purpose for sedu-cypalit, and therefore d. f:id the reasons might be had: The same day and an argued and the Court will adjourn themselves of said upon the premises until Tuesday next alone of the clock being the one & twenty second day of the said month of April The one & twenty second day of April 1685: The Court sat again and adjourned till to Morrow one of the clock.

The twenty third day of April One thousand six hundred & eighty five

The Court sat again:

And the said Justices having fully heard and over heard the whole proceedings in the premises and the arguments and allegations on both sides D. f:id that the w<sup>t</sup> aforesaid are not sufficient to arraign the D. f:id aforesaid: And it is by the Court here considered that the said Nicholas Swale who afterwards took nothing by the said Information. And that the said D. f:id to go thereof without day.

And It is Ordered that there be paid by Mr. Lynch the sum of one hundred pounds of tobacco to the said Justices for their expenses charged and attredance in and upon the Commission and premises aforesaid. //

And that the said Clerk be payed by the said Jaffer Lynch the sum of ninety four pounds of tobacco for his payme<sup>t</sup> and fees in and about the premises seen
